

Daniel Raniere

Professional Experience

Dan is a partner in Aubuchon, Raniere & Panzeri, a civil litigation firm in downtown Saint Louis. Throughout his 27 years as a lawyer, Raniere has played an active role in the community. From 1983 to 1985, he served as a municipal judge for Pasadena Hills. He is a former city attorney for Velda City (formerly Velda Village), a volunteer lawyer for the Legal Services of Eastern Missouri and the chairman of the Saint Louis University School of Law Alumni Fund and a member of The Backstoppers' Board of Directors.

Professional Affiliations:

- The Missouri Bar, 1976 - Present
- Board of Governors
- Lawyer Association of St. Louis, 1976 - Present
- Lawyers Association of St. Louis President, 1992 - 1993
- BAMSL, 1976 - Present

Area of Competence:

- Professional Liability/Malpractice
- FELA
- Products Liability
- Insurance
- Personal Injury
- Workers Compensation

Availability for Service

- St. Louis
- Jefferson City
- Columbia
- Springfield, IL
- Cape Girardeau
- Springfield, MO
- Chicago

Education

- B.A., Psychology, Spring Hill College, 1973
- J.D., St. Louis University, 1976

Honors:

- The Lawyers Association of St. Louis' Award of Honor

Licensure:

- Missouri, 1976
- Illinois, 1977